Financial Highlights

 excluding Right of Use Assets under PSAK 116*

On 20 March 2026, Indosat announced a significant milestone in its mission to expand access to artificial intelligence (AI) in Indonesia. This initiative was unveiled alongside global AI leaders at NVIDIA GTC 2026 in San Jose, California, United States, where Indosat highlighted its collaboration with NVIDIA to develop AI capabilities in Indonesia by leveraging the open-source Nemotron model.

Indosat has partnered with Google to provide access to Google Gemini for IM3 and Tri customers through bundled data packages available on the myIM3 and BIMA+ applications, effective in 8 April 2026. Following its successful rollout to myIM3 and BIMA+ application users since February, the initiative is now being expanded to reach Indosat's entire customer base over the coming weeks. Through this collaboration, Indosat and Google have established a first-of-its-kind partnership in Indonesia, offering exclusive packages that include access to Google Gemini AI Plus for Indosat customers.

 EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) is a non-IFAS measure that management believes is a useful supplemental measure of cash generated prior to debt service, capital expenditures and income tax. Investors are cautioned that EBITDA should not be construed as an alternative to net income determined in accordance with IFAS as an indicator of the Company's performance or to cash flows from operations as a measure of liquidity and cash flows. EBITDA does not have a standardized meaning prescribed by IFAS. The Company's method of calculating EBITDA may differ from the methods used by other companies and, accordingly, it may not be comparable to similarly titled measures used by other companies.*

UNAUDITED INTERIM CONSOLIDATED STATEMENTS OF PROFIT OR LOSS AND OTHER COMPREHENSIVE INCOME

Revenues of IDR15,220.7 billion were recorded for 1Q 2026, an increase of IDR1.642.8 billion or 12.1% higher compared to 1Q 2025. The Company's Cellular, MIDI, and Fixed Telecommunication business each contributed 83.5%, 15.1%, and 1.4%, respectively, to the consolidated revenues for the three-month period ended 31 March 2026.

- Cellular Revenues increased by 11.2% compared to 1Q 2025, attributable to increase in data and value-added services (VAS) offset by decrease in voice, SMS and interconnection services.
- MIDI Revenues increased by 17.5% compared to 1Q 2025, attributable to increase in IT Services and Fixed Connectivity offset by decrease in Fixed Internet.
- Fixed Telecommunication Revenues increased by 9.3% compared to 1Q 2025 driven by increase in international call and fixed line.

Expenses of IDR12,202.6 billion were recorded on 1Q 2026, an increase of IDR1,414.3 billion or 13.1% higher compared to 1Q 2025. This increase was mainly due to increases in cost of services, depreciation, amortization, personnel expenses and other operating (expense) income - net offset by decreases in marketing, general & administrative expenses.

- Cost of Services: increased by IDR403.8 billion or 7.1% higher than 1Q 2025, mainly due to increase in installation, partnership, maintenance, radio frequency fee, utilities and interconnection costs offset by lower rental and related services, starter pack and voucher.
- Depreciation and Amortization: increased by IDR187.5 billion or 4.8% higher than 1Q 2025, mainly due to additional assets from network roll out and customer contract amortization.

- Personnel Expenses: increased by IDR419.4 billion or 51.9% higher than 1Q 2025 mainly due to higher variable performance-based compensation, including bonuses and incentives.
- Marketing Expenses: decreased by IDR6.5 billion or 1.6% lower than 1Q 2025, mainly due to decrease in promotion, advertising, channel marketing and marketing agency, offset by increase in subscriber acquisition cost, customer service, and exhibition.
- General and Administrative Expenses: decreased by IDR4.2 billion or 2.0% lower than 1Q 2025 mainly due to decrease in public relations, training, education, research, insurance and transportation, offset by increase in provisions for impairment of trade receivables and professional fees.
- Other Operating (Expense) Income – net: increased by IDR414.3 billion or 136.9% higher than 1Q 2025 mainly due to one-off reversal of tax provisions, gain on early site lease termination and disposal of asset in 1Q 2025.

Other Expenses - net: The Company recorded other expenses-net of IDR1,095.2 billion, increased by IDR64.6 billion or 6.3% higher than 1Q 2025 due to an increase in finance cost offset by increase in interest income and gain on foreign exchange–net.

Profit for the Period Attributable to Owners of the Parent: The Company recorded net profit of IDR1,491.3 billion, increased by IDR180.2 billion primarily due to increase in revenue, decrease in marketing, general and administrative expenses offset by increase in cost of services, depreciation, amortization, personnel, other operating (expense) income–net and other expenses-net.
